Arabic Today Dec 22 2021 Audio material to accompany the book is available at the following website: www.eupublishing.com/page/ArabicToday/audioA student, business and professional course in spoken and written Arabic aimed at those with no prior knowledge of the language.Suitable for business professionals and students wanting to communicate directly with people and institutions in the Arab world, Arabic Today is a self-contained course in contemporary Arabic. Tuition tends to concentrate either on the written language (never used in everyday speech) or on a selected regional dialect (which is never written down). Arabic Today breaks with this tradition, capitalising on the emerging form of spoken Pan-Arabic. This supraregional form of educated speech is drawn from the most influential areas, as well as the modern written word. So whether you wish to speak the language or add writing skills as well, this course book and accompanying audio website are the ideal tools for self-tuition and classroom use. The second edition of this book has been thoroughly revised and updated to make it relevant to a new generation of readers. Grammar is explained more clearly and precisely, the reading material has been updated and the typography is clearer. New word indexes give meanings and reference for the vocabulary and together with the grammar index they offer an invaluable additional reference function.

Japan and Asia Dec 30 2019 The book is a precious reference book for development economics or the political economy of development in Asia or anywhere else. Unlike other books, first, it deals with all the East Asian countries, including Japan and other Asian countries. Second, it offers some empirical research findings based on surveys conducted by the author's group. Research on developing countries has been limited by individual scholars' observations, particularly about the value-related issues like politics or religions. Thirdly, the book digs into the nation-building problems which are often neglected by economists. It bridges the politics, sociology and economics in East Asian countries and is an important reference book for graduate students. Contents: Introduction: My Research on Asian Development The Present and the Future of Japan and Asia: When Can Asia Play a Leading Role in the World? The Lessons of the Lost Two Decades of the Japanese Economy A Postmortem Diagnosis of Asian Financial Crisis Who are Responsible for the World Financial Crisis in 2008? Policies for Aging Population with Declining Fertility Rate The Stages of Economic Development and Nation Building: Economic Development and Nation Building in Stages Regional Development Policy Development Policies in Stages Decentralization Policies in Asian Development Empirical Survey Studies of Southeast Asia: The Choice of Appropriate Technologies I — The Influence of Socio-Economic Factors and Government Policies The Choice of Appropriate Technologies II — Survey Findings in Indonesia, Thailand, and the Philippines The Socio-Economic Behavior of Peasants in Central Java and Central Thailand Japanese-style Management in Asia — Introduction Japanese-style Management in Singapore Japanese-style Management in Indonesia Japanese-style Management in China — A Summary Report Political and Cultural Problems of Asian Nations: Nationalism and Asian Political Leaders Is the Clash of Civilizations or Nations? Readership: Undergraduates, graduates and researchers who are interested in development economics or political economy of development in Asia. Key Features: It is a comparative study of Japan and all other East Asian nations It is based on the author's own empirical survey findings in Southeast Asian countries It deals with the nation-building issues along with economic development and offers new viewpoints of the author Keywords: Japanese; Asian Development
